

Seta Manoukian : Painting in Levitation

About the Book /

This publication looks back at Manoukian's work, focusing on the 70s and 80s periods of her practice. It includes essays by Gregory Buchakjian, Kristine Khouri and Aline Manoukian.

Co-published as part of the Saradar Collection x Kaph Books series

About the Artist /

Born in Lebanon in 1945, Seta Manoukian is a painter. Her early drawings reveal a sense of composition, a strong artistic hand and an original talent noticed by her first teacher Paul Guiragossian. She was teaching at Lebanese University when the Civil War began in 1975. After 10 years of war in Lebanon she had to flee, to LA defeated by war, where she still lives today, as a Buddhist monk.

Technical Details /

Hardcover
English / Arabic, 168 pages
21 x 27 cm
130 artworks reproductions (colored)
ISBN 978-614-8035-10-4